Anthony Hodge, private investigator, hopes his achievements will serve as an inspiration to youth in Columbus.

Hodge is currently working on his masters degree at Ohio State and plans on pursuing his doctorate degree in the sociology and criminology field. He said he would like to teach college level criminology in the future.

His assignments as a private investigator has sent him to California, Florida, Brazil and Peru.

Hodge is a former member of the Model City Crime and Delinquency Task Force, the Hollywood Investigation Association, and has also delivered anti-drug and crime speeches at various schools.

He has held many responsible employment positions such as providing security for the Crouch family, Little Richard and George Burns.
