

EARTH TEMPLE SPONSORS 'PROJECT HO HO HO'

EARTH TEMPLE, A non-profit organization, is once again sponsoring its annual Project Ho Ho Ho for needy families. The organization will be collecting toys and other household items that can brighten up the holiday season for those less fortunate. Articles must be new or in good condition.

Hundreds of toys, enough for nearly 1,000 children, will be needed for the giveaway on Christmas Eve, Wednesday, Dec. 24, from 10 a.m. to noon. The items will be presented to families with public assistance IDs.

In the past six years, Earth Temple has served 9,000 children. To donate of toys, building material, or cash, call 231-5595.